講演概要

January 2018 marks the one-year anniversary of Donald Trump's inauguration as the 45th president of the United States, which is an opportune time to assess progress thus far of the Trump Presidency. Campaigner Trump promised to supercharge the nation's economy via Trumpenomics: he said he would make America prosperous with supply-side, trickle-down economics.

Campaigner Trump also promised to bolster the nation's domestic security and international prestige via Trumpoleemics: he said he would make America strong with a nativist domestic policy and an America first foreign policy.

Is President Trump fulfilling the promises of Campaigner Trump? Is America on the path to renewed greatness?

To address this question, Prof. Rosengard will present a first anniversary performance scorecard of the Trump Presidency.
